overriding royalty interests ("Overriding Royalty Interests") of the oil, gas and other minerals in and under and that may be produced and saved from the land covered by the following described lease (the "Lease"):

Oil and Gas Lease of Submerged Lands dated December 1, 1988, bearing Serial No. OCS-G 10169, between the United States of America, Lessor, Brooklyn Union Exploration Company, Inc., Lessee, covering 5,760 acres, being all of Block A-1, Mustang Island Area, as shown on Official Leasing Map, Texas Map No. 3.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the Overriding Royalty Interests, together with all and singular the rights and appurtenances thereto in anywise belonging unto the Assignees, their heirs, personal representatives and assigns, subject to the terms and provisions of this assignment.

If Assignor should be entitled to receive revenues from the sale of oil and gas produced from the land covered by the Lease as a result of an operation, commonly known as "non-consent provisions", of the pertinent operating agreement covering such land, the Assignees shall be entitled to three and thirty-four hundredths (3.34%) percent of such revenues as long as such revenues are received by Assignor. If Assignor should not be entitled to receive revenues from the sale of oil and gas produced from the land covered by the Lease as a result of an operation, commonly known as "non-consent provisions", of the pertinent operating agreement covering such land, the amount otherwise payable to the Assignees shall be reduced by three and thirty-four hundredths (3.34%) percent of such revenues as long as such revenues are not received by Assignor. Assignor, as used in this paragraph, shall include singularly Assignor and each of its assigns.

The Overriding Royalty Interests shall be free and clear of all costs of development and operation of the Lease, both upstream and downstream of the wellhead, other than transportation costs, and shall be free and clear of all costs of marketing the oil and gas but shall bear its share of all taxes levied against production from the Lease.

The Assignees, insofar as the Overriding Royalty Interests, shall have the same rights, privileges, elections and entitlements as does the Minerals Management Service, insofar as the royalty under the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act, as amended, 43 U.S.C. 133 et seq. and the regulations issued thereunder.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed as imposing any obligation express or implied upon Assignee to maintain or preserve the Lease, in force and effect, to drill wells or to conduct any other operation whatsoever. Assignor shall have no express or implied obligation to Assignees to drill offset wells, to reasonably develop or to further explore.

No change in ownership, or right to receive the Overriding Royalty Interests, or any part thereof, however accomplished, shall operate to enlarge the obligations or diminish the rights of Assignor, and notwithstanding any other actual or constructive notice thereof, such change shall not be binding upon Assignor for any purpose until thirty (30) days after receipt by Assignor of instruments or other legally authenticated written evidence satisfactory to Assignor constituting the chain of title of such change.

The Overriding Royalty Interests shall be applicable to any renewals or extensions of the Lease or any new lease covering the land covered by the Lease obtained by Assignor, its successors or assigns within one (1) year after termination or release of the Lease.

The terms hereof shall extend to and be binding upon Assignor and its successors and assigns and Assignees and their heirs, personal representatives and assigns.

EXECUTED this the 15th day of June, 1989, but effective December 3, 1988.
